Get off of Junk-Mail and Catalog lists

Did you know, if you take the 105 billion pieces of junk mail received by Americans every year & put them end-to-end, they would circle the Earth 240 times. That’s about 6 million miles of Junk Mail!

Reduce your paper trail & find out how to unscribe from those unwanted catalogs or receive them electronically. Most catalogs have a website or a contact number that has that information available. You can also visit the website below to find out more on how to be removed from those Junk Mail lists.
